

The stable tribune, indoor

Description

The stable tribune, intended for indoor sports halls, the structure is made of closed steel profiles, steel sheets, cold-bent sheets connected with each other by MIG welding and a clean connection assembly with screws and bolts.

The structure is painted using the RAL powder coated method, color according to the available palette and on request.

Plastic seats made of high quality polypropylene with a choice of backrest height and color according to the available palette. Comfortable and nice seats, reinforced backrests. Seat spacing about 50cm in the axial dimension.

The tribunes platform is finished with an anti-slip plate with a thickness of 18mm, in brown or black.

In the basic version of the tribune, construction without front masking panels, in the extended version - MZG between row furniture boards according to available colors with a thickness of 18mm.

Finishes: aluminum masking angles, side and rear barriers acc. needs. Additional stairs in passages (about 120-150cm wide). In accordance with PN-EN standards.

The tribune used in closed facilities is built according to the available space, specifications and needs. Standard depth 1 row about 130cm, available depth is 2-7 rows, others on request. Stand length as required.

The product is always made only to order based on direct arrangements and details.

Technical details

Composition	Steel
Finish	Powder coating
Finish	RAL palette
Unit	seat
Destiny	Indoor

The information contained in this product sheet does not constitute an offer within the meaning of Article 71 of the Polish Civil Code