

The stable tribune, outdoor

Description

The stable tribune, outdoor hot dip galvanized for pitches, school playfields and stadium, the structure is made of closed steel profiles, steel sheets, cold-bent sheets connected with each other by MIG welding and a clean connection assembly with screws and bolts.

The structure is hot dip galvanized at all with all elements, protected again corrosion.

Plastic seats made of high quality polypropylene with a choice of backrest height and color according to the available palette. Comfortable and nice seats, reinforced backrests. Seat spacing about 50cm in the axial dimension.

The tribunes platform are made of vema platforms with hot dip galvanized finishing.

In the basic version of the tribune, construction without front steel sheets, in the extended version - MZG between rows are putted masking steel sheets elements, hot dip galvanized.

Finishes: side and rear barriers acc. needs. Additional stairs in passages (about 120-150cm wide). In accordance with PN-EN standards.

The tribune used in closed facilities is built according to the available space, specifications and needs. Standard depth 1 row about 130cm, available depth is 2-7 rows, others on request. Stand length as required.

The product is always made only to order based on direct arrangements and details.

Technical details

Composition	Steel
Finish	Hot dip galvanizing
Finish	hot dip galvanized
Unit	place
Destiny	Outdoor

The information contained in this product sheet does not constitute an offer within the meaning of Article 71 of the Polish Civil Code